STEER Partners was founded in 2011 by former senior practitioners at top-tier consulting firms, including Monitor Group, Ernst & Young, PwC, and A.T. Kearney. We have advised on over 500 engagements over the past decade on both a domestic and international scale.

Our project teams are structured on a case-by-case basis keeping our client's key issues in mind. Our partners lead engagements throughout the process and work closely with project managers, consultants, associates, and research analysts.

Our entire project team is located in our Boston office, with 100% of our research and analysis conducted in-house.

Why choose STEER Partners?

We pride ourselves on being nimble and quickly adapting to the evolving needs of our clients. Our collaborative process allows for constant contact and real-time updates. We have the experience and tools to help you drive your process forward.
